NEWS RELEASE

NuVasive Announces Departure of Chief Commercial Officer

SAN DIEGO – August 9, 2022 – NuVasive, Inc. (NASDAQ: NUVA), the leader in spine technology innovation, focused on transforming spine surgery with minimally disruptive, procedurally integrated solutions, today announced the resignation of Massimo Calafiore, executive vice president and chief commercial officer, effective August 31, 2022, to become the chief executive officer of a privately-held, orthopedics technology company. Upon Mr. Calafiore's resignation, his responsibilities will be reallocated among current members of management while the Company aligns its commercial structure to its long-term strategy.

"On behalf of the NuVasive team, I would like to thank Massimo for his impact on our organization," said Chris Barry, chief executive officer. "He has accomplished much during his tenure at NuVasive and we wish him great success in his new opportunity."

Mr. Calafiore stated, "In my five years at NuVasive, I am very proud of our collective work to transform surgery, advance care and most importantly—change the lives of patients around the world. NuVasive is an amazing company, and I'm excited to see what it will accomplish through bringing world-class, innovative technology to market."

About NuVasive

NuVasive, Inc. (NASDAQ: NUVA) is the leader in spine technology innovation, with a mission to transform surgery, advance care, and change lives. The Company's less-invasive, procedurally integrated surgical solutions are designed to deliver reproducible and clinically proven outcomes. The Company's comprehensive procedural portfolio includes surgical access instruments, spinal implants, fixation systems, biologics, software for surgical planning, navigation and imaging solutions, magnetically adjustable implant systems for spine and orthopedics, and intraoperative neuromonitoring technology and service offerings. With more than $1 billion in net sales, NuVasive operates in more than 50 countries serving surgeons, hospitals, and patients. For more information, please visit www.nuvasive.com.
